

The Annual Meeting on Phonology

2026

The University of Maryland, College Park

CONFERENCE PROGRAM

Friday, October 9 – Sunday, October 11, 2026

Friday, October 9

9:00-10:00 Registration (& coffee!) Edward St. John Learning Center (ESJ), Ground Floor
4131 Campus Dr, College Park, MD 20742

10:00-10:15 Welcome ESJ 0224

10:15-10:45 TALK 1 Computational Complexity or Typological Naturalness? Learning At-Least-One and Rightmost Vowel Harmony (Regine Lai, Chunzi Li)
ESJ 0224

10:45-11:15 TALK 2 Why reduplication, not reversal? A phonological working memory account (Sara Fong, Yang Wang)
ESJ 0224

11:15-11:45 TALK 3 Decomposing bounded iterativity in Kazakh rounding harmony (Colin Hirschberg, Timur Akishev, Merlin Balkhash, Zoe Katz, Utku Zobarlar, Adam McCollum)
ESJ 0224

11:45-1:00 POSTER A ESJ - Ground Floor

1:00-2:30 LUNCH

2:30-3:00 TALK 4 Search and Copy/Change with Boolean Monadic Recursive Schemes (Scott Nelson, Matthew King)
ESJ 1224

3:00-3:30 TALK 5 Learning Biases in Tone-Segment Complexity Asymmetry: An Artificial Language Learning Experiment (Yue Yin, Micha Elsner, Rebecca Morley)

BREAK

3:45-4:15 TALK 6 Silent prosody and the Bolinger effect (Saahil Sundaresan, Arto Anttila)
ESJ 1224

4:15-4:45 TALK 7 Noisy Harmonic Grammar and MaxEnt bound differently: An argument for Max-Ent (Aljosa Milenkovic)
ESJ 1224

BREAK

5:00-6:15 Keynote TBA (Kasia Hitczenko, University of Delaware)
ESJ 1224

Dinner On your own! See website for local & non-local recommendations.

Saturday, October 10

9:00-9:30 Coffee

9:30-10:00 TALK 8 The phonology-phonetics interface in code-switched tone sandhi (Yueke Zeng, Huteng Dai)
ESJ 2224

10:30-11:00 TALK 9 A synchronic scalar vowel shift in Lobi (Gur/Mabia) plural formation (Hannah Sande, Dylan Worden)
ESJ 2224

11:00-11:30 TALK 10 Beyond Wug Tests: Sublexical Phonotactics Affect Real and Nonce Word Processing (Stefan Pophrastic, Alec Marantz, Maria Gouskova)

BREAK

11:45-1:00 Keynote TBA (Heather Goad, McGill University)
ESJ 2224

1:00-2:30 LUNCH

2:30-3:45 POSTER B ESJ - Second Floor

3:45-4:15 TALK 11 Laryngeal phasing in voiceless and breathy sonorants (Madeline Gilbert)
ESJ 2224

4:15-4:45 TALK 12 Gestural transparency in apparent opacity: Lenis stop lenition and vowel devoicing in Seoul Korean (Suyeon Yun)

BREAK

5:00-6:15 Keynote TBA (Melissa Baese-Berk, University of Chicago)
ESJ 2224

6:30-9:30 Conference
Dinner

Sunday, October 11

9:00-9:30 Coffee

9:30-10:00 TALK 13 Gradient bilingual phonotactic judgments reflect dominance-weighted grammar mixture (Katerina Tetzloff, Han Li)
ESJ 2224

10:00-10:30 TALK 14 Formalizing stability, convergence and reanalysis in heritage language phonology: MaxEnt modeling of word-final obstruent devoicing in homeland and heritage Polish (Xinyu (Leslie) Liao, Naomi Nagy)
ESJ 2224

10:30-11:00 TALK 15 How language experience reshapes the P-Map: Final nasalization in Serudung Murut (Jian-Leat Siah)
ESJ 2224

BREAK

11:15-12:30 POSTER C ESJ - second floor

12:30-2:00 LUNCH

2:00-2:30 TALK 16 Arriving at Hidden Structure: Mutually Reinforcing Syllabification and Stress Learning (Kaustubh Ghoshal)
ESJ 2224

2:30-3:00 TALK 17 The Representation of Complex Onsets in Bangbing Bulang: Evidence from a Fieldwork-Based Phonological Sketch (Rui Liu, Chara Gui)
ESJ 2224

3:00-3:30 TALK 18 Are affix classes gradient? The effect of weight on demonym selection in English (Yanran Mou, Heather Goad)
ESJ 2224

3:30-4:00 Business meeting ESJ 2224

Poster Session A: October 9

Hierarchy compliance in A'ingae phonological overriding

Maksymilian Dąbkowski

Modeling segment strength in Q Theory: A case study of Ticuna

Myriam Lapierre, Karee Garvin

Bora Nominalisation Across Strata

Andrés Napurí

Why do marked words persist? Corpus and experimental evidence for competition between phonological and semantic well-formedness in word-formation and the lexicon

Po-Hsuan Huang, Canaan Breiss

Biases do not help with the problem of maximum entropy's unrestrictiveness

Giorgio Magri

Touch is enhanced and encoded in the phonology of signing minds

Shengyun Gu

Gradient activation of phonological representations has limited phonetic consequences

Manasvi Chaturvedi, Michael Stern, Jason Shaw

Vowel ablaut alternations are floating features: a case against readjustment

Veronika Gvozdevaite

Loss of tone contour preserves a register distinction in Changde Mandarin reduplication

Zhenrui Zhang, Jason Shaw

Relative frequency cues facilitate phonological alternation learning

Darby Grachek

A Case for Rendaku with Boolean Monadic Recursive Schemes

Daniel Yeung

Stabilized Prior Phonological Knowledge Biases New Contrast Learning for Unused Dimensions

Frank Lihui Tan, Ming Liu

Prosodically-conditioned contour/register alternations in Northern Toussian

Anthony Struthers-Young, Nicholas Rolle

Eliminating a length-nasality perception bias as an explanation of contrast typology

Cerys Hughes

The neural realization of functional load in Italian: An ERP study

Zachary McCormick, Margaret Renwick

The nature of emphasis spread in Jordanian Arabic

Hani Al Naeem

Modeling Sociolinguistic Variation of Loanword Stress Adaptation in Mirpur Pahari

Morgan Chubb

Poster Session B: October 10

Source-language influence and cross-domain faithfulness in Nuosu Yi loanword phonology

Yao Zhang, Jennifer Kuo

The role of indexation on Portuguese exceptional verbal patterns

Lucas Pereira Eberle

Constraint Ranking Paradoxes in Taiwanese Circular Tone Sandhi: Evidence Against Parallel Optimality Theory

Yichen Wang

A tool to derive P-map constraints from infants' discriminability of phonetic contrasts

Muhammad Rehan, Megha Sundara

Accent cues language-specific phonotactics in Spanish-English bilingual perceptual repair

Faolán Boyd

A learning algorithm for phonemicization in Stratal MaxEnt OT

Yang Wang, Bruce Hayes

Anti-neutralization in Estonian

Scott Borgeson

Discriminating Allophones: Impacts of Acoustic, Contextual, and Semantic Factors

Shuhao Zhang, Youngah Do

The Malleability of Phonotactics in Processing

Alessandra Pintado-Urbanc, Jason Shaw

Children exhibit domain-narrowing in a variable phonological rule

Jessica Shepherd, Betsy Sneller

Integrating nominals into a metrical analysis of Kuria tone

Kai Schenck

Effects of Lexical Frequency and Movement Direction on Metathesis in American Sign Language

Yadi Peng

Alternation-sensitive Phonemic Learning and (non-)phonologization in Japanese loanwords

Drake Howard

Edge alignment in stress priming

Claire Moore-Cantwell, Zachary Metzler, Yanran Mou

Bayesian hierarchical grammars: a case study in the English comparative / superlative alternation

Canaan Breiss

Poster Session C: October 11

Learning Opaque and Transparent Vowel Harmony in Early Development

Chunzi Li, Zhenting Liu, Regine Lai

Underlying representations affect allophone judgements in Canadian Raising

Elliott Moreton, Jeffrey Lamontagne, Monica Nesbitt, Joseph Pater

Domain-Specific Phonology of Shekgalagari Diminutives

Rebecca Everson

Phonetic substance in the neural network implementation of phonological learning: the case of vowel harmony and vowel disharmony

Shuang Zheng, Youngah Do

Sound-symbolic forms predict diachronic shifts in the gender association of personal names

Harper Crosson

Phonological category adaptation to non-native speech in preschoolers with symptoms of ADHD

Monika Kučerová, Kateřina Chládková

Phonological opacity: challenging the pathological account

Peter Nyhuis, Sacha Beniamine, Erich Round

Does "stress deafness" have a basis in the learnability of layered hidden structure?

Ryan Sandell

Interacting and variable processes in French liaison: GSRs at the word and phrase levels

Jeffrey Lamontagne, Anne-Michelle Tessier

Evidence for the Maximum Onset Principle in morpheme segmentation

Dhanya Charan, Jennifer Kuo

Secwepemctsín non-local retraction harmony: Cyclically derived postvelar contexts

Julia Schillo

Symmetrical and asymmetrical re-pairing in vowel harmony

Eric Baković

The representation of vocoid-fricative vowel allophony in Nantong Chinese

Larry Sichen Lyu

From Denasalization to Backcopying in Nyandarua Gĩkũyũ: Contrast Loss and the Emergence of Base-Reduplicant Identity

Chelsea (Yuen Chun) Tang

Modeling Stem-Internal ATR Harmony in Ỗyínnó with Tier-Based Strictly Local Grammar

Olalekan Malik Adebayo, Aniello De Santo
